

I am disturbed with the latest Directv commercial advertising their Sports Packages. They symbolize having the sports package as being in Heaven. Not only does this bother me being a Christian, but it is very appolling in general. Please have them remove this advertisement immediately!